

Community Leadership and Organization

Numerous churches, mutual aid societies, and other formal organizations were formed after the Civil War. Fraternal organizations such as the Mt. Gap Odd Fellows provided fellowship, community service, and aid to its members. The precise location of the Mt. Gap Odd Fellows Lodge has not been determined, but it was in the vicinity of Gap Road and Gleedsville Road, near Oatlands.

Oddfellows, Lodge #2047, Mt. Gap, 7 March 1898

Mar 7/98

This is to certify that
at a regular meeting held
by Mt. Gap Lodge # 2047 G.U.O.

Mar 7/98

This is to certify that
at a regular meeting held
by Mt. Gap Lodge # 2047 G.U.O.
of O.F. that following members were elected, to be confirmed trustees for the above Lodge. Jas H Johnson, Mrs Mason and Henry Washington. (3)
B.W. Murray. P.S.
Gregg Day. N.G.

Please have these confirmed.
~~What~~ what will it cost?
When can they be confirmed?
I'll send the cost in to you.
B.W. Murray. P.S.